Memorial Tribute.

Inasmuch as no adequate record has been written of the life of the late Rev. Chas. A. C. Turner, this attempt is made to give his many friends some account of his life and labors.

Charles A. C. Turner was born Feb. 6, 1859, in Lewis county, Kentucky, died January 14, 1908, in the forty-ninth year of his age, in Hillsboro, O.

At the age of seven years his parents removed to Ohio, locating first at New Richmond, but later removing to Batavia, where their children grew to manhood and womanhood.

Charles gave early evidence of a religious life, making an open confession of Christ at the age of 14 years. His early life was spent amidst the most religious surroundings; and at the age of twenty was licensed to preach by the Baptist Church at White Oak.

His practical wisdom was greatly augmented by extensive labors through the Great West. Returning from this trip, he labored earnestly for the upbuilding of the church in Ohio. He was ordained to the work of the gospel ministry from the New Hope Baptist Church at Hillsboro, under the pastorate of Rev. W. L. Burr.

Rev. Turner supplied the Hillsboro church for a time, but his most effective work was done in the smaller country churches. He felt that the smaller churches suffer from a lack of ministerial care.

At the time of his death, Rev. Turner was a member of New Hope Baptist Convention. He was highly respected by his associates in the ministry.

Rev. Turner was for a number of years an active member of Eagle Springs Lodge, No. 2426, G. U. O. O. F. September 25, 1906, he was married to Miss Virginia Plummer, with whom he enjoyed more than twenty years of married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner enjoyed the good-will and confidence of a wide circle of friends and neighbors.

As a Christian worker he believed in the power of hand to hand work toward men. He was humble in self-esteem; always a learner in the school of patience.

His widow and one brother, Leroy, survive him.

A voice at midnight came he started up to hear,
A mortal arrow pierced his frame; he fell,
But felt no fear.

"Just one year ago today
While our hearts were blithe and gay,
From his home just out of town
Rev. Turner's spirit had flown.

"And today we drop a tear,
For his voice we can not hear;
But he heard the warrior call,
Now he's thru with troubles all.

"Tho' we miss him, sadly miss him,
And the voice that was so kind,
For he's gone to join the angels
And the Saviour of mankind."

MRS. L. W. GREGSTON,
MISS LOWLER CARR

If every man was taken at his own valuation there wouldn't be half enough halos to go around.

It is easier to tell how a thing ought to be done than it is to make good when you try to do it yourself.

It takes an awful lot of self-control to enable a man to go up in the attic every time he feels like swearing.

A man never realizes how old-fashioned his clothes are until he beholds his son's glad rags on his return from college.

And it sometimes happens that one can judge from appearances. Many a woman seems strait-laced because she is laced that way.

The first time you meet a woman she'll begin to tell you her troubles if she has a chance; the second time she will make the chance.

City Editor—What do you mean by saying in this robbery story that "Brown was knocked down and relieved of a hundred dollars?" Were you ever robbed yourself?

New Reporter—No, sir.

City Editor—That accounts for it. If you'd been robbed you wouldn't describe the loss of a hundred dollars as a relief!—New York Herald

Cure For Creaky Shoes

"There is one certain and simple remedy for this annoying ailment," says Woman's Home Companion for February. "It is to drive the wooden pegs into the soles. The pegs prevent the friction of the shoe soles. Any cobbler will do it for you very cheaply and it restores your sense of mind quite wonderfully."
